Re: Letter of Support from 29 Patient and Consumer Advocacy Organizations for H.J. Res 74

Dear Representative Kuster:

Our 29 organizations, representing the interests of the millions of patients and consumers who live with serious, acute, and chronic conditions, have worked together for many months to ensure that patient voices are reflected in the ongoing Congressional debate regarding the accessibility of health coverage for all Americans and families. Today we write in strong support of your efforts to protect people with pre-existing conditions who receive coverage in the individual marketplace by following up on the recent U.S. Governmental Accountability Office ruling and introducing legislation invoking the Congressional Review Act and repealing the 1332 State Relief and Empowerment Waivers Guidance that
